Opening prayer

V. The Lord be with you

R. And with Thy Spirit

V. Let us pray

Rejoice, now, all ye heavenly hosts of angels, for the King who cometh with victory let the trumpet proclaim salvation.

Sing with joy, O earth, illumined with celestial splendor, and the glory of the eternal King, for the darkness of the world has now been put away.

Be joyful, O Church, adorned with the radiancy of so great a light, and let your holy courts resound in praise, with the voices of thy people.

Wherefore, beloved brethren, all ye who seek this heavenly brightness, I beseech you to pray God Almighty, that He would show forth His mercy towards us, through our Lord Jesus Christ, His only Son, who liveth and reigneth with Him, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever, one God, world without end, AMEN.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit

V. Lift up your hearts.

R. We lift them up unto the Lord

V. let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

R. It is meet and right so to do

It is very meet, right and our bounden duty, that we should at all times and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Father Almighty, invisible God, and to thine only begotten Son, Jesus Christ our Lord; for this is the Paschal Feast wherein the true Lamb is slain, who by His death hath destroyed death, and by His rising to life again hath restored us to everlasting life. This is the time wherein thou didst send forth our fathers, the children of Israel, out of Egypt, making them pass over the Red Sea on dry land. This is the time, wherein all who believe in Christ are delivered from the shadow of death, and are renewed unto grace and made partakers of everlasting life. This is the time, wherein Christ loosed the bonds of Hell, and from the grave did rise victorious over sin and death. How wonderful thou art, O God, in thy loving-kindness unto us, that to redeem a servant, thou didst give up thine only Son Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.

(The Priest shall light the Paschal Candle. And from its light shall all the other candles and lights in the church be illuminated)

We therefore pray thee, O Lord, that thou wouldest direct, sanctify, and govern us thy servants, and all thy faithful family, with thy continual grace, that we may pass our time in peace and gladness, in the festival of our redemption; through Jesus Christ, thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever, one God, world without end. AMEN.

V. The Light of Christ

R. Thanks be to God

Recessional Hymn #91 ~ The Strife is Over

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
The strife is o'er, the battle done,
the victory of life is won;
the song of triumph has begun.

Alleluia!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
The powers of death have done their worst,
but Christ their legions hath dispersed:
let shout of holy joy outburst.
Alleluia!

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
Lord! by the stripes which wounded thee,
from death's dread sting thy servants free,
that we may live and sing to thee.
Alleluia!

This Week's Liturgy Lesson

Today is Easter Sunday, a term derived from the old Anglo-Saxon word Eostre, which designated the month of April, in which this 40-day feast most commonly begins and on which we celebrate three great facts. First, our Lord's divinity—for while others were raised from the dead, He arose by His own inherent power, gaining victory over death for us all. Next, it established the immortality of our spirits, which before the Resurrection was only a matter of speculation. Finally, His Resurrection underscored God's seal of approval—and validated everything Christ claimed and taught. Easter is, then, rightly the queen of all Christian festivals and is the hinge point of our faith. No wonder St. Paul wrote, "...if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins. Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ are lost. If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are to be pitied more than all men. But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep." He is risen ... He is risen, indeed—our Hope of Glory—alleluia!!

This Week's Collect

(prayed every day this week)

Almighty God, who through thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ has overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; We humbly beseech thee that, as by thy special grace preventing us thou dost put into our minds good desires, so by thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end. Amen.
